
History of the AAML Southern California Chapter's Family Law Person of the Year

The immediate past president of the Southern California Chapter has the duty of selecting a Family Law Person of the Year, which is presented annually with the "Normie" trophy at the Trial Advocacy Institute. The selection remains confidential until announced. It is the highest honor bestowed on an individual by the Southern California Chapter and in 2001 was named after Norman Dolin, a Fellow from 2000 until his passing in 2001.

About Norman Dolin (from his long-time friend and AAML Fellow, Harold J. Stanton).

"Norman M. Dolin, Esq. was the kind of attorney who inspired both respect and admiration. A fierce competitor in the courtroom, yet always a congenial colleague and mentor. A connoisseur of fine wines and food, who was equally at ease with the rich and famous, as he was with the novice attorney or the courtroom clerk."
